Dealership agreement:

- Dealership entitles the dealer to a discount on the public price list. Price lists are revised monthly and will be made available to dealers on the website.
- Alarm systems and indoor detectors discount: 1st system invoice 15% discount, 2nd system invoice 23% discount and 3rd system invoice and onwards 30% discount.
Outdoor detector discount: 1st invoice of outdoor sensors 10%, 2nd invoice of sensors 15% and 3rd invoice of sensors 20%.
- Dealers and installers hereby acknowledge and agree that they will provide excellent and fast after sales services on the products supplied by Wolf Secure to their customers. Dealers and installers furthermore commit themselves to understand and learn the Wolf Secure range of products to be able to give their clients the best possible advice as well as to educate the customer in the use of the products sold.
- Wolf secure hereby agree to supply a full and fast after sales, guarantee and repair service to its dealers and installers.
- In return dealers understand and agree that Wolf Secure work and communicate directly and only with dealers and not with dealer customers. Dealer invoice his/her customers directly. All support related issues are handled by the dealer and installer.
- Furthermore dealers agree and understand that customers of dealers are the sole responsibility of the dealer alone and that Wolf Secure can not and will not intervene between dealers and dealer customers.
- Installation work that is referred directly from Wolf Secure for a Wolf Secure customer is treated as a separate transaction. Wolf Secure do not take any commission on such referrals. Installer will thus invoice the client directly and handle any installation related support. Wolf secure will handle in this case customer product related problems.
- Wolf Secure don't have credit facilities thus all orders need to be paid before we release any stock.
